

1971
TALON

this is the beginning of a new day.

God has given us this day to use as we will.

we can waste it.

or use it for good,

but what we do today
is important, because we are exchanging a day of our lives for it!

when tomorrow comes this day will be gone forever,
leaving in its place something we have traded for it.

let it be gain

and not loss;

good, and not evil;
success and not failure;

so that we shall not regret the price
we have paid for it.

Student Life

With the beginning of each new day, the active spirit of participation spread through the halls of Eisenhower promoting the constant change of each student's life. Clubs, sports and activities were all parts of the extracurricular life each Ike student led.

1970 Dawns With New Activities at Ike

Sophomore orientation, an impossible job, was attempted for the first time this year by Mr. Neptune and the presidents of all Ike's clubs and organizations. Sophomores, however, were only a small part of the 1,794 students enrolled at EHS the week before school.

After the sophomores got the swing of things, elections were held for seven Sophomore Senators, followed by elections for House and Senate officers. Then, with Student Congress in full swing, Ike was ready for the year to come.

Eisenhower spirit came through early this year when Pep Club took buses to Burkburnett only to find throngs of loyal Eagle fans already there to shout Ike's team on to its first victory. Drama's Spirit Assembly was equally well received and gave Student Congress the opportunity to distribute free EHS bumper stickers.

The closing of the first week of school found Ike students eagerly anticipating the year to come.

Plays

Long Leaves To Earn Masters

Eisenhower High School Drama Department tried something undeniably different this year with the production of the Greek tragedy Antigone. Antigone, the first major Fine Arts production of the year, emphasized the individual versus the state. The department supplemented the play with a film, Antigone, which was shown to all the students in the history classes. Scenes from the Oedipus Trilogy showed the unique costumes, masks, and techniques used by the early Greek.

Up the Down Staircase, the school play was a tremendous success. Presenting the touching tragedies and hilarious triumphs of a teacher, the play was as appealing to students as well as to the faculty. Up the Down Staircase, the last major production here at EHS, received a standing ovation at both the two presentations, and was appreciated by the audience.

Student Life

Individuality Stressed in Extra-Curricular Activities

Eisenhower placed major emphasis on a well-rounded education. Sports, student government and extracurricular activities were all stressed at EHS to complement classroom learning. Extracurricular activities, including, ev erything from hayrides and tric— races to Christmas caroling parties, played a large part in student entertainment and helped break the school year monotony.

Outstanding Students

Each new year brings new leaders to Eisenhower. It would be impossible to honor all of the outstanding students as each student is outstanding in his own way. However, each year Talon pays tribute to the students who have distinguished themselves through high scholastic ratings or devoted hard work, or who have been elected to represent EHS as royalty. These students reflect true school spirit.

Royalty

Carla Honored as All-School Queen

Genuine friendliness, courtesy, fiery spirit, and high intelligence are just a few of the worthy traits exemplified by Eisenhower's All-School Queen for 1970, Carla Riley.

During the year, she served as the President of Honor Society, Vice-President of Pep Club, a member of the Student Senate, and as a member of the City Activities Committee.

Carla, tears of joy streaming down her face, was crowned in the Homecoming Assembly presented by Ike's drama department. EHS was proud to make this one of Carla's happiest moments.

Cheerleading Tops Other Activities

Cheerleading was one of the most popular activities in which Janie Allen was involved during her three years at Eisenhower. Her senior year she was elected Varsity Cheerleader in Student Senate, Tri-Hi-Y and the CAC.

Janie Allen, cheerleader, was one of the most popular girls in the school. She was elected to the Student Senate, Tri-Hi-Y and the CAC.

Attendants Are Active Participants

Being Pep Club President took most of the time of Susan Rhoads, an EHS All-School Attendant. She was a cheerleader for two years, and was also active in Student Senate, National Honor Society, Spanish Club, Tri-Hi-Y, and CAC. Active participation in these clubs and organizations made Susan well qualified for the role of EHS All-School attendant.

Mikel Jennings, another EHS All-School Attendant, was in Tri-Hi-Y, Pep Club, Spanish Club, CAC, Yearbook, House of Representatives, Senate

Student Congress Cabinet, and was the Senior Senator. She worked hard to make the student government more effective and worthwhile. EHS was well represented with Mikel as one of its All-School Attendants.

Organizations

Organizations were the heart of Ike. Regardless of a student's taste, he could find a club at EHS that suited his interests. Large and small organizations represented the various aspects of student life. Organizations not only provided a place for students to meet, but they also provided a place for students to express their individuality and creativity.

Congress Aids Community

Student government was more prominent at Eisenhower this year than ever before. It sponsored many community projects, such as a toy drive for the Headstart Program; it also participated in the Peace Corps Partnership Program.

Individual participation was encouraged last year by the introduction of rap sessions, a suggestion box, and several open house meetings.

The fine example Ike's Student Congress set for Eisenhower students and the community proved it to be a most important part of Eisenhower.

Better relations between schools is the main purpose of the City Activities Council. Long hours, tedious re-writing, and ingenious work constituted each issue of the Patriot. Staff members reported on every major event at Ike, and continued the Patriot's reputation as one of the finest high school newspapers in Oklahoma. # Actors Aid Headstart

Providing weekly entertainment for underprivileged children and sponsoring Eisenhower's major production Antigone, were only two of the ways Thespians represented EHS in the Lawton community. Each week, Thespians performed a short skit for the children in Lawton's Headstart Program.

Thespians' Christmas party was highlighted by a mask contest. After the party, the homemade masks were given to the Headstart Children. Two initiation parties brought many new members into Ike's drama club. Initiates could be seen tromping through the halls in weird glasses and Thespians bowties during the Hell Weeks prior to the initiations.

Drama played an important part in EHS activities, and each Thespians gained valuable experience through Eisenhower's creative and talented dramatics club.

Band Marches On

Every morning at 7:30 sharp Eisenhower's neighbors could hear our band marching out to their practice field. After several awakenings by the band's sweet musical strains, many people were probably wondering, 'Must those kids practice every morning?' The answer was an emphatic 'Yes!'

Properly prepared, the band gave some spectacular performances for the halftimes at EHS football games, and received two awards at the District Contest at Altus. Not wishing to limit itself only to Eisenhower's games and contests, Ike's band also played in half-time ceremonies during the Cameron State College-Southwestern game.

New Director Brings New Ideas

Mr. Mohr shocked everyone when he announced his resignation, and the Vocal Music Department was ready to close down completely. Things were soon remedied, however, with the arrival of Howard Geis the new director. Knowing "Uncle Charlie" could never be replaced, Mr. Geis came on strong and developed his own music department. Still, some things just never change. Mike Wade continued chewing the forbidden gum, Suzie Pitt had to have every soprano solo, and Gene Sanders was always chasing some girl. It took Mr. Geis less than a week to learn all the tricks of the trade: daily lectures, occasional desk poundings, and those exasperated looks. It was rumored that he also acquired the beginnings of the required ulcer!

In spite of everything, Vocal Music did manage to accomplish quite a few things this year. Several programs were given for various organizations in Lawton, and the Madrigal Choir performed for the student body in a school assembly. The assembly, dedicated to Burt Bacharach and Hal David, was extremely well received and proved to like students that the Vocal Music Department does do something besides go to contests!

National Honor Society was more active than ever before with frequent meetings, larger attendance, and fascinating speakers. Their annual convention was held in Stillwater November 4 and 5. Carla Riley, Kendall Ledford, Donnie Thornton, and Christine Hall attended it both days, hopefully to learn a little bit about the purpose of NHS and its functions as a national organization.

Even the Book Nook gained more interest this year with the addition of posters. As usual, the Book Nook Committee managed to sneak in a few really GOOD books, but Miss Minnich managed to sneak them right out again.

Spirit Nucleus Is in Pep Club

Pep Club is the nucleus of Eisenhower's spirit, and like his spirit this year was tremendous. Pep rallies have never been as thunderous. Pep Club took buses to four out-of-town games this year, and the enthusiasm and energy displayed by the girls was unbelievable. Still, as in all organizations that contain two or more girls, there was a little hostility within the club this year. In fact, competition between the seniors and the juniors practically resulted in open battle! But that great Ike spirit united everyone when game time rolled around.

However, belonging to Pep Club wasn't just attending sports events. A glance in the gym after school would always find the girls dutifully painting signs and making locker decorations. The annual sign competition between the classes caused long hours of tedious work. The seniors won but it took an almost super-human effort to outdo the imaginative juniors and sophomores.

Most of all, Pep Club pampered and backed our boys through a winning season with the fresh new spirit they unleashed at EHS.

Cheerleading took a new turn this year with the addition of three male cheerleaders. Backed by Pep Club they gave a proud showing at Eisenhower's games this year. After attending the cheerleading camp at Southern Methodist University, where they won first place five times and the Coca-Cola Award, Ike's cheerleaders were ready for a winning season. They also received a trophy and several ribbons for their outstanding cheerleading at Norman's state clinic last fall.

Eisenhower's spirit, illustrated by the exceptional job done by these exuberant students, was something of which every EHS student could be proud.

Pom Pom

Girls Shine At Halftime

Eisenhower's new spirit was exemplified by thirty-seven glamorous girls. The new Pom Pom organization was formed to replace the former Drill Team. Each member is a prospective cheerleader, and many of the Pom Pom girls led cheers at the Junior Varsity football games.

Besides practicing cheering, the girls also performed dance routines at the halftimes of EHS football games. Never before had so much attention been directed toward halftime activities. The only ones displeased by this eggy addition were the concessions people, who suffered a definite loss due to the ogling maes' failure to leave the stands for cokes and pop corn.

FHA Girls Are Active In Many Service Projects

The Future Homemakers had a most impressive list of accomplishments this year. They made doll clothes for the Salvation Army, gave a Thanksgiving basket, went caroling in several nursing homes at Easter, and wound the year up with their annual fashion show. EHS was very proud of these talented girls and their services to the community.

Life Science

Trips Highlight Year

Life Science members had a busy and informative year highlighted by a trip to Oklahoma University's Medical Center in May for Science Day. Other trips included visits to a fish hatchery, Kelsey's Veterinarian Clinic, and the Oklahoma City Zoo and Planetarium.

Life Science meetings featured many local doctors as guests. Collections were gathered during the year for the Oklahoma Medical Research Foundation.

Members Attend State Convention

Future Business Leaders of America distinguished itself this year as one of the most active clubs at Eisenhower. Among other things, they had a Halloween bake sale, sold EHS football antenna toppers, and had a pot luck supper. In March several members attended the FBLA State Convention in Tulsa. Although the representatives didn't have too much to report about the meetings they attended, they did mention that the dance held the last night was really great!

Future Farmers of America

Donkeys "Play" Ball

One of the biggest events at EHS this year was the Donkey Basketball Game sponsored by the Future Farmers of America. Faculty fought FFA members in a torturous game of "basketball" while riding donkeys.

FFA members also attended a stock show in Tulsa during September, and another at Ft. Worth, Texas in February. Another big event for Future Farmers was the initiation of new members in December. Dinner was served in the EHS cafeteria, and Mr. Neptune and Melvin Bicket were guest speakers.

French Club

Mardi Gras!

French Club's annual Mardi Gras was the piece d resistance for members this year. In a room decorated to resemble a small French cafe, members dined on fried chicken and enjoyed the performances of some of their talented fellow members. Everyone wore costumes, and prizes were awarded for the best, worst, and most original.

Christmas caroling at local nursing homes also made a big hit with French Club members. (Especially when it was followed by a pizza party at Bianco's.) Other French Club activities included gathering food for a needy family's Thanksgiving Basket, and a French Bingo Party.

Spanish Club

Pinātas Come to Ike

Spanish Club had a very busy and profitable year kicked off by a coke mixer in September to elect the club officers. Later in the year, members traveled out to Eagle Park for food fun and games. Major Lopaz, an allied officer stationed at Fort Sill, and his family were guests for this wild excursion.

Christmas found Spanish Club selling Mexican pinatas. They generously donated part of their earnings for the Peace Corps School Program.

German Club

Club Eats And Eats

German Club had numerous parties and entertaining outings this year including everything from a simple picnic and coke party to a Fasching Party and a tasty German Dinner. After their annual Christmas Caroling Party members went to Yates' German restaurant where they ate and exchanged silly gifts.

Library Club

Club Publishes Newsletter

Although one of the small clubs at Eisenhower, Library Club distinguished itself as one of the most active. Members attended District OSLA meetings at Chickasha and Comanche and the State OSLA meeting at Oklahoma University in Norman. Library Club also sent a newsletter representing the Library Club to other Oklahoma high schools.

In the spring, Library Club became twice as busy with at least two meetings every month. April was highlighted by the annual awards presentation and dinner. One of the most interesting meetings was held in May when members brought their original works to the meeting for a reading. Library Club wound the year up shortly after that with an end-of-school picnic.

Key Club

Hayride Sparks Exciting Year

Starting the year with many sales, Key Club earned money for many adventurous activities, including a hayride in November. Student Directories, Halloween candy, and Optimist Club Christmas trees were a few of the things with which members practiced their salesmanship. Key Club wound up this profitable year by selling cokes at the EHS-LHS ball games.

E-Club

Owens Is Speaker

Establishing the Sportsmanship Committee was one of E-Club's most important contributions to EHS. Members provided cokes, towels, and all necessary equipment to visiting basketball teams.

Heisman Trophy winner Steve Owens was the guest speaker at E-Club's annual banquet in April. As always, the banquet proved to be a huge success. Members concluded their eventful year with a hayride in May.

Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y

YMCA Sponsors Government Activities

Youth and Government Meetings played a larger part in Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y this year than ever before. Members attended meetings at the YMCA every Thursday and held many discussions on current legislation in Oklahoma. The clubs also attended Pre-Legislature in Norman in January, and Legislature in Oklahoma City in April.

For relaxation, the two clubs held a joint coke party on the patio in September. Tri-Hi-Y also took a hayride to Eagle Park for a weiner-roast in November and Hi-Y held a fashion show at Edwards Men's Wear in the spring.

New Clubs Formed

Two new clubs were formed at Eisenhower this year with an emphasis on culture and racial understanding. The Afro-American Club was organized for those with an interest in the history of the Afro-American, and OIO was formed for those relating

Sports

Team sports at Eisenhower stimulated the active spirit and participation so vital for a successful school year. Every sport from football to tennis was backed by staunch fans determined to meet each season victoriously. In addition to participation, every Eagle strived for good sportsmanship throughout the year and achieved it with flying colors in both victory and defeat.

Varsity Football

But Injuries Plague Team

Shawnee won the Eagle football game and the Wolverines lost to them. The Eagles were overpowered. Quarterback Steve Crute took to the air, hitting spit-end Mike Melenore, tight-end Glen Bynum, and wideback Herman Collier, but it just wasn't enough. Shawnee won 14-7. Ike played Lawton High their final game of the season. The Wolverines won 48-8.

Although Ike's team was crippled by injuries, they went through with a 6-5 record. Now, with that powerful EHS, the Eagle proved PRIDE IS THE TRADITION.

Junior Varsity

Sophomores Struck

Even with High School Sophomores showing good prospects for seasons to come. The Falcons, coached by W. W. Loudermilk and Harlan McWhorter, trucked up four big wins in the season.

First on their agenda was LHS at High. Sophomores battled the boys but couldn't quite make it. LHS won 44-0. Burkburnett, stunned by the sophomores' enthusiastic power, fell to the Falcons 26-12. Ego up high, the Falcons let Altus slip by and win by one point, 21-20.

Paul Butler and David Graybill were a couple of the defensive standouts in the victory over F. H. Smith on Oct. 20, 1933. One of the high scoring games of the season was the Duncan game. Falcons halted the Demons 48-36.

Burkburnett brought another feather to the Falcons' cap. Clint Smith caught two touchdown passes in the victory over H. H. Smith, enabling the Falcons to win by 25-6. Some other standouts in the sophomore season are: Edward Lee, Mike Smith, Larry, W. J. and John P. P.

The Junior Varsity, composed of sophomores and juniors, had a disappointing season this year. The Falcons' record showed three consecutive losses. The Wichita Falls Rider game was a battle of the defenses. Rider nipped the Falcons 7-0. Altus was another heartbreaker. Tiger sneaked by 12-8. The final let down was the Ardmore vs. Falcon game. Ardmore won, 20-12.

Even though Falcons had a tough season, they showed good prospects for attaining Eisenhower Junior High Eagle Power.

Eagles Face Hard Season

In his fifth year at the controls Coach Bob Polan guided Ike's basketball team through a tough season against many of the leading teams in the state. Although they never really put it together on the scoreboard, the Eagles played on a game with the strength and determination of true sportsmen and managed to break even for the season.

Principal starters for the 1970-71 Eagles were forwards, Mike Wade and Butch Stovall; guards, Mike McLemore and Blake Kephart; and center, BoBo Green. The players, along with a talented and eager bench, provided a constant threat to their Boomer Conference foes. Fighting down to the wire, the Eagles managed to nab fourth place in the conference, spoiling the title hopes of Duncan and Moore along the way.

Hard work and determination helped the Eagles turn last year's losing season into a winning one in 1971.

Winning Season Earned

The Eisenhower Junior Varsity had an outstanding season this year. The Falcons season started out with a grueling battle between Ike and O.C. Northeast. The Falcons lost 72-52.

Next, Ike played our cross-town rival Lawton High. The Falcons soared over the Red Raiders, 58-40. Eisenhower then traveled to Norman and came back with a disappointing 69-49.

A 48-45 victory over Altus was the beginning of a five-game winning streak for the Falcons in which Putnam City West, Moore, Altus, and Duncan fell prey to Ike. Norman brought an end to the Falcon's good luck with a 64-43 win.

The Falcons had a hard time getting to their feet again, winning only two out of their last five games. However the players gained valuable experience and will be a great asset to next year's varsity team.

Baseball

Baseballers Seek to Improve Record

ke's baseball team of 1971 should prove to be a good one.

With several returning starters, and some promising newcomers, the Eagles will probably surprise fans and foes alike. Mound duties will be shared by Jimmy Tibbs, Gary Allen, Danny Marney, Robert Gordon and Mike McLemore.

Paul Whiting, Robert Igarta and James Riley head up a host of infield candidates.

Outfield duties will be handled by Steve Cofer, Herman Collie, Allan Munson, and John Ridgway. Billy Pollard and Leo Holmes will share the catching position.

If this year's baseball team is an example of future teams, Ike can look forward to many winning seasons.

Training Makes the Difference

After placing ninth in last year's State meet, Ike's track team took a deep breath and began the extensive training necessary for this year's state competition. Three outstanding veterans, Johnny Hunter, James [unclear] and Henry Williams, returned this season to lead the way in the 440 relay. Field events were also well represented by Tuck Pittman, and Nolan Franklin.

With the many fine starters this season, Ike's thinclads will hopefully run away with all of the top honors.

Team Nets Honors

Eisenhower Eagle's tennis team participated in several meets. Although the team didn't win as a group, several individuals placed first and second in tournaments with other schools.

Last season, Kathy Belie netted one first and four seconds. Ann Taylor brought home one first and one second, while Deanna Elkins ran away with a first at the Boomer meet.

Another winning season was the goal of the Eisenhower golf team when they opened the season at their own tournament. The team was led by senior, Jeff Smith and junior, Mark Watson. Lance Butemeyer, Mickey Botkin and Tommy Dickens were top contenders for high honors.

Eagles competed in numerous tournaments including Duncan, Norman, Altus, Boomer, Regionals, Lawton High and Frederick. Ike's golf team represented Eisenhower well and brought home many honors.

Academics

Each new day at Eisenhower was approached by our faculty and administration with vitality and a sense of objectivity. Ike's well-trained staff strove not only to help us with situations and problems we encountered during the year, but also to prepare us for those of the future. Constantly employing new methods and ideas, they played an important part in making the kind of school that has come to be known as "THE PRIDE OF LAWTON."

Principals

Highly Skilled Leaders Head Eisenhower

The most important part of being in contact with the principal is the contact with the principal. With the help of Richard Neptune, principal, and the staff, the school is striving toward the best school program possible. Mr. Neptune patiently carried Eisenhower through another successful school year.

Jerry Moon, assistant principal in charge of discipline and attendance, unseated all truant and delinquent students. The school is striving to be a model school for the district. The main purpose of the school is the prevention of truancy, delinquency, Jim Miller, assistant principal in charge of activities and administration, balanced Eisenhower's budget and managed the cooks, custodians, and secretaries. As activities director Mr. Miller planned and coordinated all school activities. He enjoyed his new job because it enabled him to work in many areas of responsibility.

EHS owes a great deal to these highly skilled, imaginative men who played a large part in making Ike "The Pride of Lawton."

Faculty, Curriculum

The faculty of the school is composed of highly qualified and experienced teachers who are dedicated to providing a high quality education for all students. The curriculum is designed to be challenging and relevant, and to prepare students for the future. The school also offers a variety of extracurricular activities and programs to enrich the student experience.

Business Courses Prove Essential

Students often wondered why they took typing as they made their forty ninth mistake on a fifty word timing. However, when teachers started doing out term paper assignments, they realized the importance of knowing how to type.

The Business Department offered a wide range of courses including everything from Business Law to Consumer Economics. Many of these are essential for anyone entering the business world. However, they are also practical for any student, no matter where his interests lie.

Vocational Arts

Hobbies Be- come Careers

Vocational Art courses were the greatest factor in determining the future of many Eisenhower students, showing high interest. The courses are well rounded Art, Mechanical, Electrical, Home Economics, Vocational Agriculture and Wood working.

Vocational Art courses helped form the future of many Eisenhower students and provided valuable experience for all those enrolled.

Foreign Language

Current History Explored

Some new techniques were incorporated into the curriculum in the department this year. In addition to the standard learning portions of the courses, instead of concentrating on grammar only teachers also emphasize a study of cultural and recent history to broaden the students' knowledge of the language.

Materials Center, Library

Teachers' Loads Are Lightened

Easing the teacher's job was the successful aim of the EHS material center and library

A professional library exclusively for teachers was incorporated in Eisenhower's library system. Here teachers could research their subjects, preview films, and use typewriters at their convenience.

Ike's materials center was another teacher's helper. Preparing tapes, setting up audiovisual equipment, duplicating materials, and running off tests were just a few of the duties handled by the materials center.

These educational assets gave teachers more time to concentrate on immediate classroom problems.

Individual Rate Encouraged

Progressing at the speed at which one can be successful is the theory behind the English department divisions.

The sections were divided into Basic English, English II, American Literature, Western Literature, World Literature, and the latest addition, Dramatic Literature. This course is concerned exclusively with the study of plays and playwrights.

Perhaps the most innovative teaching method employed in classroom procedure is the rotating teacher system used in the basic sections. Every nine weeks participating teachers take their units of study to a new class of students.

Programs as meticulously planned and carried out as these contribute to a successful English program.

History

New Techniques Round Out Courses

Eisenhower's history department strived to employ new techniques in the year's agenda. Using the past to complement the present, many history teachers broke the usual lesson monotony with group sessions to discuss current issues. A variety of topics ranging from the Paleolithic Age to Viet Nam and the Far East struggles rounded out the courses and provided valuable far-reaching information for Ike's students.

Math

$$\sum_{r=1}^m \frac{r! (r-1)!}{2 (2r)! (4r^2)^{m-r}} X^{2r} = ?$$

Those who were under the misconception that math was a simple matter of addition, subtraction, and multiplication ran into a little trouble this year in the advanced courses offered here at Eisenhower. Many courses, ranging from Advanced Algebra and Analysis to Analytics, required many long hours of deep concentration.

Ike's mathematics department, however, does include many basic courses of study, such as Pre-Algebra, Algebra I, and Geometry.

Perplexing as it may seem to most, math can be a rewarding field to follow as a career.

Science

Exploration Skills Stressed

Eisenhower's science department stressed exploration into the why's and how's of every question, whether a simple dissection or a complex chemistry equation.

Chemistry, Biology, Physiology, Physics, Psychology and Geology were all related in that they were concerned with life and the things that are connected with it.

More advanced courses such as Physics and Chemistry, required more time in the laboratory actually working out solutions with applied skills. This method proved itself a valuable asset in all areas that required disciplined reasoning ability.

ROTC ROTC isNumber One

Although only three years old, the ROTC was considered one of the best in the state. Classes were conducted in regular five hour divisions with segments on map reading, march instruction, the care and handling of fire arms, and related military education subjects.

To honor the Lawton Reserve Officers Training Corps divisions an ROTC day was celebrated. All three ROTC programs in Lawton met for a dinner, dance and reception February 26 to celebrate the programs success.

Health and Safety

Wilson Starts Gymnastic Program

Keeping physically fit is an essential part of every person's quest for complete self-satisfaction. Eisenhower's physical education department employed the use of gymnastics. They included uneven parallel bars, floor exercises, balancing, and vaulting. Much more than push-ups and jumping jacks gymnastics is a complete educational experience in itself.

Another experience equally as educational was the driver's education course. Obviously, its main objective was trying to teach the student to drive. Both of these departments were vitally important in rounding out a student's education.

People

People determine the quality of a school, and Eisenhower was fortunate in having a student body full of talent, enthusiasm, and spirit. Joined together by an eagerness to meet each new day, they gave Eisenhower its distinctive personality. Each class had its own individuality and uniqueness; yet each would have been incomplete without the other two. Through their actions and words, EHS students proved PRIDE IS IKE'S TRADITION.

Seniors Remember . . .

Eisenhower seniors will always remember '71 as the year of spirit and fun. Wherever there was a little harmless mischief, there was a senior. Senior spirit was reflected in everything from Pep Club to the wild, whacky, but successful school projects.

However, being a senior wasn't all spirit and fun. Seniors were avid participants in community projects, too. They helped to represent Ike's outstanding pride in a wide variety of contests and meetings with schools all over Oklahoma and Texas. Senior leadership in music, band, drama, sports and student government contributed a great deal to Eisenhower's winning year.

College anticipation and studies also played a large part in many seniors' lives. But their work here at EHS taught them much more than just intellectual knowledge. It gave them an intimate knowledge of life itself.

Juniors will always remember racing through the halls of Ike, especially when they ran right into Mr. Moon. It's been a long hard year for the juniors. Yet they've managed to survive with their everlasting wit and know how. In this year of decision, the juniors have decided to wait until next year to decide. After all, next year is the year of superiority, leisure and glory for the seniors of '72. With a future like that to look forward to, being a junior isn't so bad after all.

Sophomores Remember . . .

Ike's youngest group will never forget that first day at Eisenhower Senior High. The only way to survive was to dig right in and come out fighting.

Sophomores wasted no time in getting to know Ike. After Senator elections, they began to feel right at home. The seniors tolerated them and the juniors despised them, but nothing prevented the sophomores from building and maintaining a pride and spirit in Ike that lasted all year. Sophomores have formed the basis for an excellent class of '73.
